

Sustainable Transport Strategy

Brief Case Study by Your Development Administrator posted 30 Oct 2008

In order to encourage greater use of sustainable transport (e.g. public transport, carpooling, walking and cycling), Port Phillip City Council, Victoria changed car parking provision rates. Ratio Consultants and Port Phillip City Council received a commendation award for this project in the 2007 Planning Institute Australia Victoria awards for Planning Excellence.

•Categorised under:

- Access and Transport, Energy Management, Climate Change Adaptation & Mitigation, Sustainability Management,
- Local Government,
- Temperate,

Description

Location

Beaconsfield Pde, Middle Park, Vic, 3206, Australia

Links

- Website

Link to Content

•<http://yourdevelopment.org/view/id/113>